A Day at the Museum

Yesterday, Fred and I went to the Art Museum to visit the Ancient Egypt Exhibition because we love the history of Egypt.

At the entrance, Fred wanted to go to the toilet. I was eager for the exhibition so I went into the exhibition with my camera first.

When I was walking around, I saw a mummy in the coffin. It was amazing! I took a photo immediately.

Suddenly, a security guard said, 'Don't take photos!'

'Sorry,' I said to the security guard.

After a while, I looked around to find my friend, Fred. All of a sudden, I saw a mummy walking towards me. I was scared and I screamed but I heard the mummy laughing.

Actually, it was Fred! He used toilet paper to wrap himself. He was naughty since he tricked me.

In the end, I scolded him because I was angry.
